

US Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act of 2008

STATEMENT:

This is to confirm that we are manufacturing and distributing products that need special warnings according to the new US CPSIA law voted by President Bush on August 14, 2008.

The list is enclosed below as a reference and describes the type of warning needed.

We also certify that our products are safety tested by Bureau Veritas in the US, Shanghai and Hong Kong and pass or overcome all US Toy Safety Standards including lead and phthalates.

Testing documents are available upon request. Please email info@blueorangegames.com and provide an email or fax number.

Below is our product list with safety statements. You may also download the Excel version here: CPSIA.XLS
